Experience

CHARLOTTE-MECKLENBURG PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT, CHARLOTTE, NC

Social Studies Teacher, August 2013 to Present

North Mecklenburg High School – Hired to teach social studies on a team that focuses on teaching the LEP, EC, and standard population.

Key contributions:

- Member of a consortium made up of teachers and students from North Mecklenburg High School, in association with a faculty member of Queens University of Charlotte, to address key issues and facilitate critical conversations on multicultural topics.
- Lead teacher of the Civics and Economics content professional learning community.
- Lead teacher for the 10th and 11th grade standard-level professional learning community
- Worked for the CMS Humanities Department to work towards creating a plan to phase in the new US History and Civics sequence. (2013)
- New Teacher mentor and peer observer

Social Studies Teacher, August 2011 to June 2013

South Mecklenburg High School – Hired to teach social studies.

Key Contributions:

- Was in the position of department chair from 8/2011-1/2013 where I attended all leadership meetings, disseminated information to my team, collected and organized necessary paperwork for the administration team, and acted as a point of contact for the department.
- Co-facilitated the Sabre Teacher Academy for the 2012/2013 school year. Provided bi-weekly professional development for teachers at South Mecklenburg High School that were in their first three years of teaching in topics that ranged from differentiation to classroom management to literacy strategies.
- Worked for the CMS Humanities Department with a specially chosen team to develop teacher-friendly resource guide for Civics and Economics. The guide included a breakdown of the NC Essential Standards for Civics and Economics, key vocabulary lists, suggestions for teaching and assessment, and a list of I can statements.
- Worked for the CMS Humanities department on a district leadership team that disseminated information to all Lead Civics and Economics teachers in the district. Developed a guide of best practices that was provided to each lead teacher.
- Sponsored the Academic World Quest team that competed against other schools on Global topics (2011-2013)

Social Studies Teacher, August 2006 to June 2011

School of International Studies and Global Economics at Olympic High School – Hired to be a Lead Teacher and Social Studies Department Chair for the new school

Key Contributions:

- Earned high marks for the quality and creativity of classroom teaching, lesson plans and instructional materials used in teaching Social Studies.
- Developed innovative approaches that were repeatedly held up as the model standard for meeting district goals in areas including Literacy Across the Curriculum and Civics and Economics/ US History Objective Mastery.
- Taught general education students as well as Exceptional Children (EC) students and Limited English Proficiency (LEP) students within a mainstreamed, inclusive classroom.
- Worked on the Lead Teacher team with Administration to create the framework for International Studies and Global Economics within the CES framework, and managed documentation to maintain eligibility requirements for grant funding (2006-2009)
- Worked on the conversion team to convert Olympic High School from a comprehensive school to five CES small schools (2005-2006)
- Led a teacher team to create and manage teacher led Professional Development for our school. Worked with another faculty member to get our in-house PD approved for continuing education hours on My PD with CMS. (2009-2011)
- Developed a partnership with Queens University to create a Model UN delegation with students from IS&GE and Queens University. (2009-2011)
- Sponsored the Academic World Quest team that competed against other schools on Global topics (2006-2011)
- Worked with Administration to create School Improvement Plan (SIP)
- Acting textbook coordinator responsible for the inventory and distribution of the schools textbook (2006-2011)

Social Studies Teacher, August 2004- June 2006
